

Eleanor Ritchie New GCS Director

By George Reeves

The attention of the directors of Greenbelt Consumer Services, Inc., was deflected Friday night during the first half hour of their meeting from the usual orbit of retail business policy by discussion of the role two of their members, Walter Bierwagen (chairman) and Henry Walter, should take in Mayor Frank Lastner's planning committee which held a preliminary meeting the same evening. Harry Zubkoff protested Bierwagen's proposed absence on a board night. Morris Solomon and Sam Schwimer expressed doubts as to Bierwagen and Walter's authority to represent GCS on the new planning group. The doubts were resolved by an examination of the by-laws. Bierwagen explained that the matters under discussion were different from those already being handled by a committee on the problem of commercial property ownership; and, backed by Walter, affirmed that no binding action would be taken without consulting the board as a whole.

Bierwagen and Walter departed at 8:30. Treasurer Calman Winegarten, next officer in line of those present, took the chair. The attendance was reduced to five board members (out of nine), one general manager, two audit committee members, one reporter and one observer. It was reported by the Executive Committee that board member Charles A. Bicking, of Takoma Park, had found it impossible to attend most of the meetings since his election at the annual meeting. In accordance with the bylaws, which were applied for the first time in a case of this kind, Eleanor Ritchie, after considerable discussion, was "forthwith" unanimously elected to serve as a director until the next quarterly meeting, in place of Bicking. Mrs. Ritchie was a member of the 1951 board.

There were no committee reports and no formal report by the general manager. It was supposed to be a "membership and education" meeting. But efforts along those lines apparently had been exhausted in the quarterly membership meeting held two days before. The various committees at that time combined their reports in one document, the essence of which was published in the Cooperator. Outstanding event not included in the document was a "serious suggestion" by Samuel Ashelman, general manager, that free movies be shown on an experimental basis in the Greenbelt Theater during the middle of each week as an amenity for the citizenry and an attraction to the peripheral public who might thus be induced to patronize the Greenbelt shopping center. Theater Manager Jack Fruchtman took the suggestion under advisement but warned that there would probably be opposition from film distributors and other exhibitors.

SUMMER SONG RECITAL

Junior voice students of Lydalu Palmer will be presented in recital on Sunday, June 15 at 4 p.m. in the Center school auditorium. Those participating are Betty Siegel, Carol Comings, Jerry Anzulovic, Adrian and Joseph Cornett, Kay Ellen and Jackie Fruchtman, Marilyn Hazard, Gregory Sullivan, Vicki Goldfaden, Alexa Jean Bevington, Joyce Ott, John and Tony McCarthy, and Donna Jean Evans.

The public is cordially invited to attend.

Kindergarten Deadline

First month's kindergarten tuition of $8 must be paid before June 13 or registrants will lose their priority and be placed on the waiting list. Those who have not registered have the additional $5 registration fee to pay before that time as well. 92 children have been registered and teachers are being interviewed.

Qualified teachers are asked to contact city manager Charles T. McDonald for consideration, as two teachers are to be employed. Vivian Pines, Bernice Brautigam or Norma Anders can be called regarding registration. Only 25 children will be allowed per class, so early registration is of the greatest importance if children are to attend the Greenbelt Cooperative Kindergarten, opening in

Board The Booktrain Read Round the World

The Booktrain is a reading project sponsored by the Greenbelt Public Library this summer for the purpose of stimulating reading. When the child registers at the library for the reading club an engine with his name on it will be placed in the Roundhouse. After his first two books have been read and a written report of a sentence or two has been turned into the librarian, his engine will be placed on the track and moved according to the number of books read. Additional cars will be added to the engine as the reader progresses with his reading. At the close of the project, the reader will get his engine and the number of cars he has earned and a list of the books he has reported upon.

Children from the second grade thru the sixth grade will be eligible for the club.

Remember—Registration week is from June 16 thru 20; project lasts from June 23 through August 2.

JCC Boat Ride

The Ways and Means Committee of the JCC has planned a BOAT RIDE and PICNIC for the afternoon of Sunday, June 22. This includes a ride down the Potomac to Marshall Hall Park, a playground and wooded park which has outdoor recreational facilities, shaded picnic groves, rides and amusements.

The boat leaves Washington at 2 p.m. and arrives in Marshall Hall Park at 3:30 p.m. Then there are two hours to have your picnic, play games and enjoy the amusements. The return trip begins at 5:30 p.m. and ends in Washington at 6:40 p.m.

For tickets or other information call Larry Miller, chairman, Ways and Means Committee, 10-B Plateau Place, Gr-4278.

Special Committee Meets

Mayor Frank Lastner was elected chairman of a standing Coordinating Committee representing council, GCS and GVHC at the groups first meeting last Friday night.

The function of the committee, according to a telephone interview with the mayor, is to "study phases" of the present housing situation in order to "satisfy all the people." At its next meeting on June 18, members will report their investigations.

Representing the Council were Mayor Lastner and Councilman Goldfaden; GCS — Walter Bierwagen and Henry Walters; GVHC — Thomas Ritchie and Roy Davis.

Yum-Yum, Mikado Due on Stage Here

Greenbelt fanciers of Gilbert and Sullivan will have the rare privilege of seeing a live production of "The Mikado" on home grounds when it is presented by the Montgomery Light Opera Association at the Center school Friday and Saturday, June 13 and 14 at 8:30 p.m. under the auspices of the Woman's Club.

The Montgomery Light Opera Association has been in existence over two years, boasting many professional singer and musician on its rolls. Its objective is bringing light and comic opera to the community in the traditional Savoyard style, synonymous with the finest in Gilbert and Sullivan presentations. The company designs and makes its scenery and costumes, and all profit from its productions are committed to new productions.

The Association has successfully put "Pirates of Penzance" and "H. M. S. Pinafore" upon the boards at Olney Theatre, and "Mikado" has been presented in Washington.

Harry Crow, Jr., director, is taking the title role. Other prominent members of the cast are Marquette Egeler, Marlin Smith, Donovan S. Correll and Marian Saunders.

Tickets may be secured from members of the Woman's Club, or at the door each performance night.

Anglers Nab 150 Perch, Spot

By E. don Bullian

Last Sunday's fishing trip, the first of the season sponsored by the Izaak Walton League, was highly successful. Over 150 perch and spot were caught by a select group of fishermen, who were so intent on fishing that some of the refreshments were actually brought back. It was one of the rare occasions when everyone was satisfied with the catch. The group was fortunate in getting a large new boat, and a skipper (one of the Manifolds at Deal) who knew his bay.

Today's meeting at Fireman's Hall will be a rather elaborate affair: three reels (15 minutes each) of color film will be shown by Bill Jenkins, who in a very short time has become one of the mainstays of the Greenbelt Chapter. In addition to the film there will be refreshments and the presentation of lapel buttons and membership cards to all new members; this also applies to prospective members who join tonight.

Majorettes to Perform At Air Force Party

The Greenbelt Majorettes, under the leadership of Anne Walker and Ronda Bibler, have been invited by Mrs. Frances Barkley, chairman of entertainment, to attend a farewell party in honor of Colonel George F. Kinzie, director of material, Hq MATS, Andrews AFB, June 21. The girls will perform to the accompaniment of the Andrews Air Force Band and enjoy the various contests, sports and finally dinner to be served by personnel of the base. Approximately 100 officers and their families, and civilian personnel of the Directorate will attend the function.

Sitters Take Notice

The baby-sitters group, at a meeting Tuesday night, decided to drop the dues of 25 cents a month. The $30 now in the treasury will go to the newly-established kindergarten. The sitters group has 20 members and has several openings for families interested in cooperative baby sitting. For further information call Vivian Pines.

Council Sets Salary; Scores Traffic Sins

By I. J. Parker

An ordinance to increase the city manager's salary by $500 was passed by the city council at its meeting last Monday night. Charles T. McDonald, city manager, will now earn $8,000 a year, with a maximum of $9,500 to be reached after six years. In proposing the ordinance, Mayor Francis J. Lastner explained that the increase was in line with comparable communities of the size of Greenbelt, and with the types of services provided by this community.

Salary Raise

Speaking for the proposal, councilman Thomas Canning suggested that the increase may not be sufficient. He stated that comparable federal government salary raises are greater. Lastner, however, explained that the increase was agreed upon after several conferences and research about other communities.

Consideration of the monthly reports from department heads disclosed that the department of public safety was quite active during May. Traffic violations amounted to 11, for an all-time high. A campaign by the police department to diminish traffic violations is still in progress.

Passed after a second reading was an additional appropriation of $400 for fireworks on the Fourth of July celebration at the lake grounds. Including the $100 already provided in the budget, a total of $500 will be spent. Free bus service to and from the lake will also be provided, the council voted. City operation of the bus for a complete year will be commemorated by the free service.

At the next meeting on July 14 consideration of the problem related to long-time employees at the top of their grades will be given. About seven employees are involved. After reaching the maximum salary in their classifications, it is felt by some members of council, these employees are "in a rut," salary-wise. It is hoped that some solution of their problem will be arranged.

Improvements

Councilman Ben Goldfaden asked the city manager to give further consideration to several problems; the surface of the tennis court, construction of "dug-outs" or shelters for baseball teams on the athletic field, and the poor surface at the parking area near the lake.

Councilman Steve Conrings was absent due to illness.

GVHC Outlines Transfer Routine

According to an announcement from Finance chairman Tom Ritchie, the board of directors of GVHC has established the method by which transfers are to be effected. The new system had its first try-out this week.

Groups Set Up

The master priority list remains the Priority Book, which members signed as they made their good faith deposits. Within this framework, however, three groups have been set up. Group I includes charter members (those who signed up before December 1947); Group II includes those residents who joined between December 1947 and June 1950; Group III includes those who joined after June 1950. Members will be contacted according to the groups to which they have been assigned.

How It Works

A sample schedule will operate as follows: On Monday 20 people will be telephoned, in priority order, and asked to come to the office on Wednesday to pick up their lists of available houses. By Thursday at 3 o'clock, when the GVHC office closes, they will submit their first, second and third house choices on a form prepared for that purpose. On Friday they will sign their sales contracts for the units they will buy, not later than 10 p.m., when the office closes. Thus, each group of 20 will have, after their two days' notice, approximately 72 hours to select their units from prepared lists and to sign their contracts.

Resident Protection

If a resident has paid his $100 good-faith deposit, his house will NOT be offered for sale until he has signed a contract for the unit he intends to purchase.

If more than one resident pleads the same unit for first choice, the conflict will be resolved in favor of See GVHC, Page 2

Last Ditch Decision

As we go to press GCS must decide—within hours—whether or not to buy into GVHC. Like local householders, GCS faces an eventual increase in expenses no matter what plan it undertakes. But, despite more than six months of sale negotiations, no facts and figures appear to be available. Management has been secretive, the board without initiative and the membership indifferent. The results make a shocking picture of irresponsible behavior.

Recent GVHC-GCS meetings have led us to believe that GCS will profit best in the long run by participating in the sale with GVHC, which cannot and will not otherwise buy the commercial property. We believe this action would benefit the corporations, the community and those who are members of all three.

If anyone has the concrete information to support or refute us, let him come forward!

Letters To Editor

Kindergarten

Dear Editor:

This is to remind the citizens of Greenbelt that another golden opportunity is slipping through our fingers.

For years, Greenbelt has had a free kindergarten. We have accepted this service and taken it for granted as we have many of the other features that make this community such a paradise for children. We were the only community in the county to enjoy a free kindergarten.

When they learned absolutely that there would be no free kindergarten, a group of mothers began planning realistically for the future. The crowded condition of schools throughout the county made our kindergarten rooms look especially good to a harassed school board. These mothers managed to secure two rooms free of charge, out of the five now in use. This means that now and in the future, only 100 children each year can be assured of space in the school. This is tragic, in view of the fact that over 300 children were registered in kindergarten this year.

There are only 90 registrations for next year. Half of them have not paid the first month's tuition which is needed to guarantee the first month's salary to a prospective teacher.

We pay the lowest tuition of any cooperative kindergarten in the county and we are the only kindergarten in the county who has the use of a public school room. If you fail to register your five year old now, you may be denying your future five year old the opportunity.

Sincerely,
ANN HOFF

PERSONALS

Among the members of the June graduating class at Ohio State University was Gordon E. Green, awarded a Master of Science degree. Burch F. Talbert of 42-D Ridge Road, received his Bachelor of Mechanical Engineering degree from George Washington University on May 28.

"Loki", famous war dog owned by Col. and Mrs. Stone of Chevy Chase, died June 8. Legion members and the children of Greenbelt all join "Pop" Bell in hoping that "Loki", one of the most famous War Dogs, will make as many friends in "Dog Heaven" as he did on earth.

"Loki" was originally trained by "Pop" back in the early days of World War II and served with honor in Europe and the Pacific. He made appearances in many large cities of the east, in parades, etc., under "Pop" Bell's handling. He was an honorary member of American Legion Post 136 of Greenbelt and was cited with the Maryland Legion Citation in 1951.

Ourand - Burns

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh P. Burns of 44-N Ridge Road announce the engagement of their daughter, Mary Dolores, to James E. Ourand, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Ourand, of 9-G Ridge. Miss Burns is a graduate of Notre Dame Academy and attended Wilson Teacher's College. She is employed at the Interstate Commerce Commission. Mr. Ourand is a graduate of Greenbelt High School and will receive his degree this summer from the University of Maryland, College of Business and Public Administration. No date has been set for the wedding.

GVHC Meets PHA, PDC, GCS

By Robert Davenport

[Special for The Cooperator]

GVHC board members held a series of meetings Monday with representatives of the Peoples Development Corporation, the Public Housing Administration and Greenbelt Consumer Services.

With PHA

Directors Salzman, Ritchie, Bowman and Burgoon met at the PHA office of R. Olmsted with Roy Little, deputy commissioner, and O. Berquist, advisor on rent stabilization regulations with PHA. Attorney Norman Altman was also present. The main issue discussed was the problem common to both groups of rent increases for Greenbelt. Under present rent control rules GVHC cannot obtain a rent increase until it actually takes over the city. Both parties agreed that it would be advisable to find out from the rent stabilization authorities in advance the nature of the increase which could be obtained and are considering a joint petition to that effect.

With PDC

Two meetings were held with Howell and Rainsberg of the Peoples Development Corporation. In the morning directors Bukzin, Bowman, Eordenet, Burgoon, Salzman, Ritchie and Davis joined lawyer David Krooth, GVHC's negotiator in his office to discuss with the PDC representatives a loan of $100,000. This figure is double the commitment made by PDC in 1951. Due to Krooth pointed out, to the increase in the price of Greenbelt. Possible disposition of the loan would be $100,000 as down-payment on the undeveloped land, $200,000 on the unsold units and $100,000 on the "old" Greenbelt apartments. If bought, GVHC would continue to honor PDC's original condition reserving first right-of-refusal to develop housing projects on the undeveloped land, under GVHC or other local sponsorship, in accord with section 213 of the Cooperative Housing Act.

With GCS

At a subsequent meeting Monday evening, with the entire GVHC board and GCS manager Sam Ashelman, GCS president Walter Bierwagen and GCS director Henry Walter, negotiator Krooth led a discussion of disposition of the commercial property. The present terms of the GCS lease, guaranteed for four years, make landlordship impractical for GVHC without the consumer cooperative's participation in the sale. GCS, on the other hand, has not yet decided whether to buy in or to buy directly, aware that the protective features of its lease would have to be re-negotiated at the end of the 4-year period. PDC is interested in Greenbelt primarily as a stable cooperative housing community, whose present membership in both the consumer and housing corporations would remain fairly steady.

PHA mortgage releases, the city's tax rate and the future possibilities of office buildings, etc. on the vacant land were also discussed. No definite conclusions were reached.

GVHC held a brief regular board meeting following the joint conference. A motion by Burgoon, to refuse to buy the apartments but request an option to purchase later, failed to carry.

At its next meeting tomorrow night the board hopes to make final decisions on the vacant land, the apartments and the commercial property, in order to be prepared for the June 30 deadline.

Hogan, Reamy Hit Two Homers

Five Little League games, one outside tilt, and hot sunshine turned McDonald Park into a dust-bowl of activity since last report. Co-featuring the week of play are Mel Taylor's College Park Legion and, individually, Young Kenny Reamy. Taylor's Legionnaires completed a first-round white-wash of the other five teams and the Bowlers' Reamy became the second player this season to hit two homers in one game.

Last Thursday evening Jim Ewing's Bowlers nipped Bob Kelly's 136 Legion Post Redbirds in one of the better played games by 4-1. Freddie Slanugh pitched one-hit ball and struck out 13 men. Winning pitcher Slanugh also hit a home run off Barry Petroff who managed to strike out 14 Bowlers. Both boys walked 5 men. David Goldfaden got the only hit off Slanugh.

In an excitingly close slugfest Friday evening, George Preston's defendin champion Izaak Walton nine edged Bernie Emmert's Co-Op by 14 to 13 when Bobby Oring got home the winning marker on a booming out-of-the-park homer with no outs in the last inning. Bobby Cangelosi had a big hand in his Fishermen's success by banging home 8 run with his three two-baggers! Richie Fonda and Dewayne Barron had 3 hits apiece while Lew Castle and Wes Hogan collected two each to pace Co-Op. Two of Fonda's hits were doubles.

The Indians of rookie coach Chet Speziale thumped the Izaak Walton, 7-2 in the early morning game Saturday. Winning pitcher Mike Nance wasn't scored on until the last inning when the Waltonians counted twice. The tall flinger struck out 16, walked 5 and gave up 5 hits in winning his and his team's first game. Nance and Ellsworth Evers got 2 hits apiece for the winners while Leroy McCauley and Bob Oring each safetied twice for the Fishermen.

No matter how commonplace the errand, getting away for a day "in town" without the children can be a very exhilarating experience. A homemaker's job is relentless in nature, and a rare day off is much appreciated.

Nathan Straus' new book on housing, "Two Thirds of a Nation," describes the model city—sounds just like Greenbelt. So many of us take Greenbelt for granted—its safety, its surrounding lawns, fields and forests, the swimming pool, the nearby schools, the many churches and organizations, the lake picnic area, the handball and tennis courts, the gardening areas, the Boys Club, the Drop Inn, and so many other fine features.

The 11 o'clock game Saturday was scarcely a contest as Bill Sillman pitched a one-hit shut-out while his mates jumped on three Redbird pitchers for 29 runs! It was College Park over Greenbelt in an all-Legion tilt.

Don McDonald batted in six runs with a homer, double and 2 singles. Other prolific batters were Don Estep with a pair of doubles and singles in 7 tries and Ron Don-Bullion with 3 for 5. Jimmy Jay Shaffer ruined Sillman's bid for a no-hit when he singled in the fourth inning.

In an afternoon ball game Saturday Bernie Emmert's Co-Op entertained the Severna Park nine from near Annapolis. The visitors scored twice in the first and last innings to whip their hosts 4 to 1. Each team made six hits. Bigbee, son of the Severna Park coach, was the winning pitcher. Wes Hogan was the loser.

Co-Op will visit Severna Park for a Fathers' Day game this Sunday. Anyone wishing to drive over for the game and picnic contact Coach Emmert at GR 53221.

ity about to relinquish its ownership of Greenbelt, I sincerely believe that cooperative ownership through GVHC is our best bet that this will continue to be a model city. If we have faith in ourselves, and in the ability and integrity of neighbors elected to run our housing cooperative, the outlook is hopeful. Good management could mean savings and better maintenance. There is nothing wrong with Greenbelt that a bang-up maintenance job couldn't cure!

When you ask your husband what he wants for dinner, don't believe him when he replies, "Oh, anything." He really means anything he happens to like, but you are supposed to guess. A cheese souffle with asparagus on the side could be a most unfortunate choice. . . .

blasted Izaak Walton by 15 to 2, featuring big Kenny Reamy's two home runs and two doubles that batted in ten runs! Eddie Wilkerson helped out with a couple of two-baggers in three tries. Winning pitcher Freddie Slanugh was never in any trouble and struck out eleven men.

First round games will have been played by tomorrow evening when Izaak Walton plays Post 136 Redbirds.

The same two teams start second-round play Saturday morning at 9:30 while the Indians meet the Bowlers at 11 o'clock. Next Tuesday Co-Op plays College Park Legion at 6:30 P.M.
